86 Swanston Street, Terang

A Diamond In The Rough

Opportunities like this one in Terang are rare. A corner block, ripe for a subdivision or development (stca) is perfect for the astute investor. The site is very large and level which makes it perfect to build on. The house is 3 bedrooms, one bathroom and is in need of some love from an intelligent renovator. The price is reflective of the property but we feel it represents enormous value. The large shed on the site is ideal for storage, caravan or car. An inspection is a must with this property's privacy and frontage.
