218 Hickeys Road, Nullawarre

A Location Close To The Beach

Located on approximately 1.5 acres this property would make the ideal family home and is only minutes to the famous Childers Cove beach. The space and surrounds are amazing with a wide variety of fruit trees (46 Fruit Trees) vegetable gardens, flower beds, shade houses, seedling shelters raised garden beds and mulching areas. The gardens have been manicured to perfection and as seen seven years ago it has opened up more space for kids to play, kick the footy and explore.

The home features four bedrooms with an ensuite to the main and a walk in wardrobe, it also has three living spaces plus a bungalow which is being used for storage at the moment. The kitchen area has plenty of space and features a laminate kitchen with gas stove and oven. Outside you can entertain your friends in the undercover paved area ideal for all weather conditions, 3 bay shed with a storage room, plenty of power points and lighting. At the rear of the property there is an old dairy which could be converted to something quite special or use for more storage if required. The property also has a bore which is perfect for watering the garden and with this area renowned for plenty of underground water of the highest quality
