138 Rooneys Road, Warrnambool

Cute And Colossal

This property has everything from the enormous back yard to the huge living space at the rear. The vendors are clear with their instructions to sell this gorgeous home and have put price that is extremely good value for all astute buyers. The home features three very spacious bedrooms all with BIRs, has polished floorboards throughout, a wood fire in the front living which adds charm and ambience to the place, the kitchen is neat with all the necessities and that huge living at the back again is priceless. The garage is double in size but has a single car access, and with some little modification could quiet easily access two. Do not wait to inspect this home as properties with these features and at this price won't last long. Call us to arrange an inspection
