

Sold

40 Lindsay Street, Dennington

Stop Renting And Buy This

STOP RENTING.

This lovely home is just what your family needs with interest rates so low. Give your family all the quiet comfort it deserves with this inspired character filled home. Starting with 3 bedrooms master with BIR and part ensuite. The family bathroom has a separate bath to shower ideal for the kids to splash, in keeping with the family theme the laundry is of good size and the kitchen is very open with plenty of cupboards. Family time will take on a whole new meaning spent together relaxing in the large lounge. Outside this property keeps adding more character the kids will love the citrus trees found in the rear yard whilst a single garage with new roof and concrete drive will certainly add to the already impressive features this property has to offer. Finally the superb established trees and garden beds finish this home ready for your family to move in.

Sold : $229,000

Shane Hicks

shane@robertsone.com.au

