relaxing evenings.

Beyond the living area, the three bedrooms are just as considered. Separated from the living area by the hallway, the three bedrooms and family bathroom are close and comforting. The larger bedroom includes built-in-robos and each bedroom has large window and curtains.

The fresh and highly-functional family bathroom includes floor to ceiling honeycomb tiling, standalone shower with niche, bathtub and long floating vanity with drawers. The nearby laundry is simplistic and elegant, with stainless steel sink, timber bench and cabinetry (including tall cupboard and pull-out laundry hamper).

Outside, you will be surprised by the space. The low maintenance yard is grassed and landscaped with a garden shed, enough space to play and enjoy, build your dream garden or keep manicured and low-key.

Located only 450m to the Rail Trail entry (offering a direct walk/bike link to the town centre) and 2km to Sackville Street shops, enjoy having everything you need just minutes away, while still being able to retreat to the peace and tranquillity of your own home. Port Fairy offers schools, parks, incredible beaches, recreational reserves and sporting clubs and public transport.
