The Ideal Investment

This clad weatherboard home is very warming with its Californian Bungalow type features and has a low maintenance feel about the property. The home inside has three bedrooms, two with built in robes, features gorgeous polished floorboards, and slate to all wet areas, and the luxury of two living areas is perfect for the family. The heating is well catered for with a wood fire and split system, and the bathroom has been renovated recently with a vanity and shower over bath. The white kitchen has dark laminex bench tops, and has a white electric oven and stove appliances which is very fashionable. The meals area is off the kitchen and leads out through the double doors to an outdoor entertaining area which is ideal for the BBQ. The yard is a great size for the family dog and with the lockable shed has the ability of storing the essential gardening equipment required to maintain this awesome property. The location is unreal with walking distance to the supermarket, swimming pool, clarkes pies (yum) and the local schools. Call us today to arrange an inspection
